APT Northwest Presents
HISTORIC WOOD WORKSHOP
SATURDAY MARCH 14, 2009

The Northwest Chapter of the Association for Preservation Technology (APT) is presenting a full-day (9am - 4pm) HISTORIC WOOD WORKSHOP on Saturday, March 14, 2009. The workshop will be held at the University of Washington (UW) Seattle Campus in Room 100 of Gould Hall (see the campus map for specific location at <http://www.washington.edu/home/maps/northcentral.html?GLD>). Presentation topics will include wood and historic preservation; pathological tendencies of wood; environmental replacement options; evaluation and analysis options; wood repair, restoration and replication; and structural and seismic upgrades. Technical sessions will be augmented with an historical case study and a walking tour of wood construction examples on the UW campus. Lunch and snacks will be provided. The Workshop is $40, and is limited to 50 people; please RSVP as soon as possible to secure your seat. Preregistration is required.

Speakers include the following:

Ron Anthony ("The Wood Guy"), Anthony & Associates, Inc.
Scott Baker, Tree Solutions, Inc.
Kim Manning, Extreme Access, Inc.
Todd Perbix, Perbix/Bykonen
Kathryn Merlino, University of Washington Department of Architecture

Please let us know if your company would like to help us sponsor this event!!

APT (Association for Preservation Technology) is a cross-disciplinary, membership organization dedicated to promoting the best technology and practices for conserving historic structures and their settings. Our members include preservationists, architects, engineers, conservators, consultants, contractors, craftspersons, curators, developers, educators, historians, landscape architects, students, technicians, and other persons directly involved in the application of methods and materials to maintain, conserve, and protect historic structures and sites for future use and appreciation. We are a local chapter of the international organization, offering opportunities to learn about new and old technologies and the exchange of ideas.

Please RSVP no later than February 27, 2009. To RSVP or for more information contact Tyler Sprague, UW, tylersprague@gmail.com, 206.369.2028; or Rhoda Lawrence, BOLA, rlawrence@bolarch.com, 206.447.4749.
